MOST BENEFICIAL SCHOOL SUPPLY IS FREE AT GLENDALE'S LIBRARIES

Glendale, Ariz. — Studies show that children learn best when they have the opportunity to pursue their own interests. That's why a library card is the most important school supply of all and the best deal in the city – free.

September is Library Card Sign-up Month, and the Glendale libraries join with the American Library Association and public libraries nationwide to encourage students to get their card.

Glendale's public libraries provide students with access to innovative programs, classes and educational resources to support their curiosity. Students can use their library cards from home, too. Our library offers access to important educational resources, like e-books, online homework help, online databases and reading rooms.

Glendale has three libraries: Glendale Main Library at 5959 W. Brown St., Velma Teague Branch at 7010 W. 58th Ave. and Foothills Branch at 19055 N. 57th Ave. Library cards are free to Maricopa County residents. For more information on how to sign up for a library card, visit one of the Glendale libraries in person or visit www.glendaleaz.com/library.
